HONGKONG, TUESDAY, JULY 19, 1892.

Those over-sanguine people who supposed that the punishment of the eminent patriot and leader of the 4 p m. - Extraordinary Meeting of Selams | Literati, Chou Han, had put an end to Mining Co., Ltd:, a: Company's Office. | the anti-foreign-placard business will be surprised at the news which now comes The N. G. I. a. s. Bisagno left Bombay for Noon. - Tender for Matsheds, Kowloon, from the North. If they do not yet see that the so-called degradation of Chau Han was only a ridiculous pretence, they will at least have to admit that their confidence in its result was greatly misplaced. Hardly had the authorities got through the farce of dealing with Chou Han when a brand-new series of placards appears. The new placards, we read, have been 'extensively posted from Yokohama for Vancouver yesterday in Chang-teb, the next most important city to Chang-sha in Hunan. They afternoon, having on board 140 salous pass are attributed to Choir Han, and whe- sengers.

ther they are really his work or that of his faithful followers does not greatly matter so for as foreigners in China are concerned. The great fact is that the placards are allowed to be posted up in public places and that the authorities do not interfere. That fact in itself is more significant than the fact that Chou Han had gone back to his old practices would be in Whether the non-interferof the authorities is due Goods per Steamer Salazie unclaimed after to want of will or to want of power or to both is also comparatively immaterial, Goods per Arratoon Apear undelivered because none of these reasons can be regarded for a moment as affording an Transfer Books of The Hongkong Ice excuse for the continuance of this vile Company, Ltd., closed from this date method of inciting popular hatred against foreigners. It is idle to discuss the measure of culpability which may be applied to one official or to another. or the extent of the powers which the authorities "can use in regard to the doings of the Literatie These pincards undeniably constitute a menace to the safety of foreign residents in China, and it is imperative in the first place that this menace should cease to exist. This is what has to be clearly and emphatically insisted on by the Foreign Powers. Mere excuses and assurances that something will be done will not suffice. The futility of such assurances is already too-well known. Such steps must actually be taken as will compel the responsible authorities to prevent the publication of these placards and with all persons concerned in the infamous work. In a despatch to Lord. Salisbury, dated 26th January last, Sir John Walsham telegraphed :- Her Majesty's Consul at Ichang telegraphed to me on the 21st inst. that vile 1.50 placards had that morning been posted on the walls of his consulate, threatening the destruction of foreigners. His most recent despatches repeat the same story, that notwithstanding all his efforts, which have been continuous, not a single individual connected with the very serious riot at Ichang has yet received punishment, although many arrests have been made. Such a state of things is very unsatisfactory. That the situation has improved I do not for a moment deny, and I am willing to believe that the Chinese Government are becoming alive to the necessity for the demands of Foreign Powers being Bottled) 14 1.25 met by them. Still, their habit of leaving everything in the hands of the local officials, whose hostility to foreigners is invariable, renders shortive Red Capsule....... 84 $4.50 the attempt at action which they make. B St. Estephe. Red Capsule 4.50 5 00 In the same despatch the easy-going 7.50 and dilatory British Minister, being D La Rose, Red Capsule ... 11 12.00 apparently somewhat doubtful about the alleged improvement in the situation, says that the improvement is more apparent than real. These pasages are instructive, and in view of Case. Per Bot. | the fresh flood of anti-foreign literature it is well to recal thom. The habit of leaving everything, in the hands of the local officials still characterises the Chinese Government, and of course this will continue to render abortive any attempt at action which they may make. Therefore, the necessity which rests on Vintage, Red Capsule... 30 2.50 the Foreign Powers now, as regards this very serious matter, is to make the Chinese Government take effective action, instead of being content with measures the futility of which is a foregone conclusion. Until this is 0.75 done, any improvement in the situation, as regards the dissemination of the poison which these placards or tracts contain, will be looked for in vain, Judging by the specimens of this new series of anti-foreign placerds which 1.00 have been reproduced in the Shanghai papers, these inflamous sheets are even filthier and more viralent than those previously published. As they have, however, the same object-the stirring up of popular hatred against foreigners and against Christianity in particular and seek to attain it by the same means, we refrain from giving further
